MR. BERNARD SHAPIRO
Principal

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1959, as well as the administrators and faculty of Bassick High School, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Bernard Shapiro, our new principal.

In this one year that you have been with us, Mr. Shapiro, we have admired the high standards and goals you have set for us at Bassick. We have respected your readiness to consider student ideas, gladly approving them when possible, and firmly but kindly rejecting them when you thought best. Above all, we have appreciated your genuine concern for the welfare of your students.

It is, then, with deep gratitude and a sincere wish for your continued success that we dedicate this, our 1959 yearbook, to you.

SENIOR DELEGATES

The Senior Delegates, representatives from each senior home room, transacted all business during the senior year. At regularly scheduled meetings, under the leadership of class advisor Mrs. Helen McHugh, the delegates discussed the suggestions of the represented home rooms.

It was the responsibility of the Senior Delegates to count the votes of class elections, plan the class trip, organize senior activities, and boost homeroom spirit.

We owe our sincere thanks to Mrs. McHugh and the Senior Delegates for making our senior year a memorable one.

CLASS

Dear Class of '59,

It was over one hundred years ago that a group called "The Fortyniners" set out to find gold. Today, a group known as "The FIFTY-NINERS" is ready to start on its way to seek fame and fortune. It leaves a historic record in the halls of Bassick High School.

It was during the Sophomore Class Party that we discovered we had talent ranging from pantomime to singing and soft shoe. Nina Culetsu, Donna Johnson, Joe Bernard, Kathi Steene, Kathy Lehmann, Barbara Cone, Janet Taylor, and Diana Roy were just a few of our talented performers.

As juniors we blinded the sophomores and freshmen with our new rings, and on Class Day we proudly paraded as official seniors. It was during this year also that the girls of the Class of '59 walked off with the most votes for the best song and cheer on All Girls' Day. We certainly were proud of ourselves.

The class trip was different for the first time in a good many years. Instead of the annual trip to West Point, we spent the day at Happy Acres. Those who were daring enough to venture into the icy water went swimming, while the rest of us played tennis and shuffleboard or just listened to the latest tunes coming from the jukebox. A hot steak sandwich certainly hit the spot with us on that cool June 7.

Martha McCauley brought fame to Bassick and the class of '59 when she won the city-wide Voice of Democracy Contest. She presented her trophy to Miss Gallahue, Acting-Principal of Bassick, during our class assembly.

In the fall of our senior year we met Mr. Bernard Shapiro, our new Principal, and Miss Mary Louise Rafferty, our Dean of Girls.

Our turkey dinner definitely tasted better after our victory in the annual Thanksgiving Day game this year. That was a very happy occasion for Bassick students AND the football team, as co-captains Tony Wiencko and John Olson led the Lions to a ROARING 18-12 victory over Roger Ludlowe. It was after that game that Tony, Bassick's great passing quarterback, was selected to the All-District team by the M.B.I.A.C. coaches.

HISTORY

The Lion's Den

Ron Millard, Eileen Bjorken, and Betsy Ruoss made Clark Gable, Joan Bennett, and Kim Novak look like amateurs as they really put on a performance at the Senior Play, "Time Out for Ginger."

The annual Mothers' Tea was well-attended—as the clean up committee will tell you. Many mothers were pleasantly surprised to see how effectively their daughters arranged and served a lovely tea. Our Key Club, under the direction of Mr. William Haffner, did another fine job this year filling baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Lester Lanin had nothing on our Bassick "Sophisticats" who presented some great music at our Bassick-Fairfield hop and other dances.

The Senior Prom, the highlight of all school social events, exceeded our expectations, and we all had an exciting evening. Class Day, the last official school day for the seniors, arrived, and everybody "duded" up and paraded the halls, signing Yearbooks and saying last farewells to the teachers. After Class Day exercises, the long-awaited moment came—GRADUATION! The Senior Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lilyan Zigun, gave a most magnificent performance. Handkerchiefs and tissues were much in evidence as tears flowed copiously. The reason? Four years of hard work, dashing into class at the last second, working all evening on a homework assignment and finding out the next day that it was the wrong one, and for some of us, sitting in detention because of a misdeed. As we look back, it was all in good fun and we really enjoyed ourselves. Our trials, tribulations, laughter, and joys have enabled us to reach another goal in our lives; and we leave Bassick with fond memories!

There's not much more to say except that we have the greatest group of guys and gals anybody could ask for, and we'll be looking forward to the class reunion in 1964!

Your friend forever,
Leo the Lion

CLASS

On a bright June 7, 1958, ninety members of the Class of 1959 met in front of Bassick and boarded busses for the start of our class trip. After a pleasant ride, we arrived at Happy Acres. Since the sun was shining brightly and the day was warm for June, many of us went swimming in the pool; others played tennis and shuffleboard; still others went rowing on a nearby lake.

After a delicious barbecue and dancing, everyone reluctantly boarded the busses again to head back to Bridgeport.

We extend our thanks to Mrs. Helen McHugh and the chaperones for making our class trip most enjoyable.

1. We leave Mr. Shapiro and Miss Rafferty recuperating from their first year at Bassick and wish them many more successful years to come.
2. The girls, as well as the boys, leave Mr. Donofrio their thanks for his advice and understanding as Dean of both boys and girls.
3. To Miss Lockwood we leave a Univac machine so that all programs will automatically be scheduled.
4. To Mrs. McHugh we leave our sincerest appreciation for all of her efforts on behalf of the Class of '59.
5. Isie Ferreira leaves her book reports to next year's "classic" lover.
6. Viola Rubis leaves her witty remarks to anyone who dares to use them.
7. Richard Stiliha leaves his squeaky voice to next year's A Cappella tenor.
8. Paul Buhan leaves his pipe and pipe cleaners to Richard Brinkman.
9. Marilyn Robinson, Pete Trigubetz, and Ronnie Cryoskie leave their sixth period "Art Coat" to next year's sloppy painter.
10. The comedy team of the three Kathys—Wilson, Carson, and Shanley—leave Bassick laughing.
11. Sonny Romatzick leaves his shoes for Richie Huydic to fill.
12. Cal Loss leaves his dateless nights to next year's band widower.
13. Nina Culetsu leaves, and the records go back to their correct speed.
14. Bonnie Logie leaves her wig to next year's baldie, Eleanor Molloy.
15. "Flash" Schipul leaves, and the bulbs stop popping at Bassick.
16. Milbrey Wallin leaves her rosy cheeks to next year's paleface.
17. As in the past, Pat Ayer leaves her traditional giggle to Peggy Polo.
18. Andy Colangelo leaves his "Period 7" seat in 108 with a sigh of relief.
19. Pat Conceicao leaves, and so ends the country bumpkins at Bassick.
20. Paul Gottfried leaves his chemistry observance to next year's butter-fingers.
21. Mary Ann Gniadek leaves her booklet entitled "How To Catch A Football Captain" to Roseanne Grosso.
22. Paul Schultz and Bill Wicks leave, and a gloom spreads over the girls.
23. Frank Resnik leaves his syndicate to Bruce Bradley.
24. Barbara Merson leaves her feed bags to next year's seniors with big problems.
25. Rosalie Thomasina O'Brien leaves her nickname, Tina, to Encarnacion Marie Garcia.
26. To Miss Mallay we leave a periscope for seeing around corners.
27. Betsy Ruoss leaves her football to next year's captain.
28. Eileen Bjorken leaves Miss McNulty without a mother for her future plays.
29. Miss Cutler is left with a year's subscription to the New York Times.
30. Ronnie Millard leaves his job as emcee to next year's Ed Sullivan.
31. Sheila Antell leaves her drawings as the first contribution to the Bassick Art Gallery.

WILL

32. Harriet Siller leaves her bow and fiddle to next year's Jack Benny.
33. Martha Saur leaves her peppy school spirit to Phyllis Moss.
34. Julio Pires leaves his spot on the dance floor to next year's Arthur Murray.
35. Danny "The Barber" Borgman leaves, and sideburns come back in style.
36. Mary Alice McMullen leaves and starts a new career with the Stewart Smith Institute.
37. Kathy Lehmann leaves her raccoon coat to next year's flapper.
38. Kathi Steene leaves, taking her guitar with her.
39. To Mr. Hustek we leave a new group of freshmen from which to build a New England championship team.
40. Rich Mooney leaves, and the Duchess Drive-In goes out of business.
41. Jim Pavliscak leaves his job at the A&P to anyone who doesn't like his job at the First National.
42. Alice Danbury and Liz Coler leave their love of books to next year's Library Squad.
43. Joyce Rodger leaves her school spirit to next year's admirer of UConn.
44. The senior girls leave so that someone else can win All Girls' Day.
45. Jim Mueller leaves a trail of broken hearts to be mended by Bruce Ando.
46. George Fox, David Senger, and Joe Franko leave and their teachers discard their empty boxes of tranquilizers.
47. To Miss Fotta we leave a can of oil for use in quieting her noisy 309 ceiling fan.
48. To Miss Cooney we leave a spring lock for the United States map rack.
49. Barbara Hudak, Veronica Casey, and Virginia Ciardullo leave their speed in shorthand to next year's secretarial whizzes, Barbara Stodolski, Cornelia Lloyd, and Charlotte Mills.
50. Frank Piazza and Bill Prezioso leave their unsurpassed skill in making parking places where there are none to next year's auto commuters.
51. Jeri Wenkert leaves her success with the early decision plan to next year's Wellesley candidate.
52. Sheila Hayes leaves, and Senga Mucci picks up where she left off.
53. Judie Weinschenk leaves her regular attendance at all athletic events to Sue Hickman.
54. Donna Johnson leaves Jim Parker with reluctance.
55. Larry Schwartz and Gail Cone leave their offices in the Debating Club to next year's perfect team.
56. Bev Sotir and Shaileen Krivi leave their multi-colored hair to next year's undecided blondes.
57. Maureen Shea leaves her pleasing personality to next year's Senior Veep!
58. To the juniors we leave a senior "First"—our Bassick beanies.

SENIOR MOTHERS' TEA

Football decorations brightened the Library on October 15, 1958, when the Class of 1959 held its annual Mothers' Tea. Upon arriving, each mother received a football-shaped name tag and was then greeted by Martha Saur, chairman, and Mrs. Helen McHugh, class advisor. During the tea Jeri Wenkert, Sue Chopsky, Kathi Steene, Barbara Cone, Kathy Lehmann, Ann Ceruzzi, and Joyce Hofmann provided entertainment. This last Mothers' Tea of the Class of 1959 was a great success.

L.-r.: Paul Buhan, Ed Kelly, Mary Ann Gniadek, Judie Weinschenk, Bonnie Logie, Bert Bauchner, Martha Mc-

Cauley, Eileen Bjorken, Ron Millard, Betsy Ruoss, Jim Pavliscak.

SENIOR PLAY

A girl on the football team! Ridiculous! Who is this girl? She's Ginger Carol, wonderfully portrayed by Betsy Ruoss, in the Class of '59's presentation of "Time Out for Ginger," directed by Miss Mae McNulty. Ginger's father, played by Ron Millard, is an understanding football enthusiast. Mrs. Carol, Eileen Bjorken, expects Ginger to be as lady-like as her two sisters—Joan, played by Mary Ann Gniadek; and Jeannie, Martha McCauley. Ginger's non-athletic boyfriend, Tommy Green, played by Jim Pavliscak, and Jean's athletic boyfriend, Eddie Davis, played by Ed Kelly, add to the enjoyment of the situation.

From the penthouse of the exclusive Van Zysk Building could be heard the final blasts of Sue and Gary Johnson's bon voyage party. It was being thrown for a group of former Bassickites, class of '59, of course, who had begun to amass their fortunes selling elevator tickets to naive underclassmen.

All the elite were attending—Duchess Stephanie Bell Lawrence; Baron Philip Mather Whitney, the famous horticulturist; Christopher James Capozziello, Jr., the world's heavyweight champion; and gossip columnist "Whispers" Leibold. Also saying adieu were Steve Bakos, Leah Schaffer, Harriet Boyle, and Marthe Piller.

It was 12:45 A.M. when Joyce Drob rushed to phone the Takacs Taxi Company. Soon afterward the taxis arrived, and the group piled in. They were surprised to find their old classmates Jerry Wilemski, Steve Shunda, Art Schwartz, and Steve Garguilo manning the vehicles.

The luxury liner, U.S.S. Delales of the Christiano Line, was about to leave when the Bassickites arrived, fashionably late. Four policemen, Roy Walker, Ted Petro, Gus Hatzis, and Ron Kach, smilingly wished them a bon voyage while issuing four traffic tickets. Captain Chamberlain ordered deck hands Bill Randall, Bob Wells, Bob Csanadi, and George Sedgwick to cast off the lines.

Half way across the Atlantic, Alan Bardugone sighted the Bazso bamboo raft manned by Stanley Dober, Kenny Applebaum, Tom Keane, and Howard Smith. They were attempting to break the world's paddling record which was recently set by Earl Chantlos, Richard Stumbris, Al Moran, and Fred Kundert.

As the passengers turned from the rail, they saw lifeguard Carl Borg rescuing Ann Ceruzzi from the kiddies' pool. Doctor Seth Malin and Nurse Mary Waldron rushed to the scene and applied artificial respiration, while Mary Ann Sulcius and Betsey Swire looked on admiringly.

The famous troupe of actors and actresses, Pierre Pavliscak, Pops Bauchner, K. O. Kelly, Brigitte Bjorken, Maxie Millard, Paul Bunyan Buhan, Babe Ruoss, Gigi Gniadek, Luscious Logie, and Maggie McCauley were basking in the sun. They were conserving their energy for their forthcoming performance, "Time Out for Cocco," at the Woodward Theatre in Paris. The play was produced by Jacques Pires and Robert Ross, whose works include "The Saur Pill," "King Solomon's Mines," and "Summer's End."

Playing shuffleboard was the owner of the Hoffman Water Works Company, Mr. Douglas MacVeigh, and his lovely wife, the former model Joan Fazekas. Their opponents, Bob Gabler and his future bride Jean Sedita, were the new owners of the Zegarski Bridge, formerly known as the George Washington.

Wee Willie Wicks was giving an exhibition of 1½ lb. weight lifting before his admirers—Joyce Hornyak, Barbara Bordash, Judy Johnson, Nancy Meyers, and Gail Seiler.

Multi-millionaire Danny Borgman was strolling along A deck when he heard screams from astern. The world-renowned lecturer, Larry Schwartz, was floundering in the water. Gail Cone, ship's hostess, jumped in to save him. Their gurgles attracted the attention of the Shah of Shail, William O'Brien, and his wives, "Bashful" Barron, "Cleo" Chonka, "Babe" O'Donnell, "Hit 'em Harder" Hawman, and "Walla" Schiavone.

Richard Cuccaro, ship's termite exterminator, single-handedly hoisted them up with a newly invented Voytek rope. Three of the ship's stewards, Jerry Frauworth, Alan Johanson, and John Salter, rushed to the scene with Brecklin Waterproof Towels.

Ray Matey dropped his "Better Built Burdo Binocular" from the crow's nest in the excitement of sighting land. And Bonnie Schwoer, Carla Seaberg, and Joan Loungo rushed below to get ready for the landing.

The ship bumped into the dock at La Denzel, France. Ambassador Canfield and his interpreter, Betsey Szarka, met them at the customs' desk where John Perry, Russell Porter, and John Veray were checking baggage.

Carolyn Berkley, animal lover, was told that she couldn't bring her two-hundred-pound aardvark into the country, so she had to leave it in Zuckerman's Zoo, where Bruce Lanese offered to take care of it.

The group traveled on Bodnar's Railroad Line along the Seine River. (This was once called Baggs Brook, but was later deepened by Bulldozer Bernstein with his Sanwald Steam Shovel.) Conductor Gall passed through the compartments announcing that they were going through Baynockyville and would reach Paris in half an hour.

On the outskirts of the city, Donna Petro and Mary Bowns sighted the Chateau Piccot which they had read about in Gondor's MAD magazine.

After much confusion, they reached the plush La Reed Hotel in which Bob Carlson and Fred Kelly, agents of Tucker Tours, had made reservations for them.

As Betty Strople and Jeanne Kadric registered, they noticed the names of the other guests: Marcheta Jones, famous hair stylist; Janet Dennis, president of the Zadravec Society; Bob "Don Juan" Bylo, famous lover; Tina O'Brien and Maureen McQueeney of the Tramosch Temperance League; and Carol "Tallulah Bankhead" Wall, star of the Howdy Doody Show.

Betty and Jeanne asked the manager, David Sibbick, when Mazzacane's Moulin Rouge would open. Since they had plenty of time to go shopping, they decided to pick up some souvenirs.

Hours later, after buying out the Shoppers' Fair du Paris, Bouffard's Better Department Store, and the Penny Five and Dime, they returned with things they would treasure all their lives, such as Donahue doorknobs and Schietinger's all-purpose horns—just to name a few. Before returning to the hotel, the girls stopped at Bousquet's Beauty Salon (famous for their Chopsky Chop) which was being run by Mlinarchik, the world-famous toupee maker. Sitting under the drier they spotted Dorothy Lattin, Virginia Warner, and Janice Rourke—all getting ready for a big night on the town.

A quick stop back at the hotel and off to the Moulin Rouge where they were to meet the Mayor of Paris. When they arrived, Kevin McNeill led them to a ringside table. Seated nearby was Fifi La Petrashak, the well-known authoress, deeply engrossed in conversation with Joe Neeley and Richard Peters (who always were great talkers in Room 312).

The lights dimmed, and conductor Joaquim Silva struck up the orchestra. Waving his baton, he hit Harriet Siller, the first violinist, causing her to sound flat on her Wyllie violin.

Led by Betty Vitanyi, the Can Can line came in. Everyone applauded when Candy Kane (X Chemist) and Babsy Cone finished their solos with cartwheels which they learned to do from instruction in Mrs. Humphreys' class.

The news-conscious nose of Sue Eike, writer for "The Cafiero Chronicle," noticed Jean Nilsson, a dancer in the famous line, winking at Mayor Edward Romatzick. That wasn't bad in itself, but he was winking back!

The mayor's jealous wife, the former Diana Roy, noticed this escapade and the group decided to leave before the fireworks started. "Luigi" Kertesz, Jerry Lee Roebuck, and Ralph Saccone weren't in such a rush that they didn't have time to take souvenirs, such as Shea chandelier crystals by Comen, Schollin silverware, and the cigarette girl, Gloria Valko.

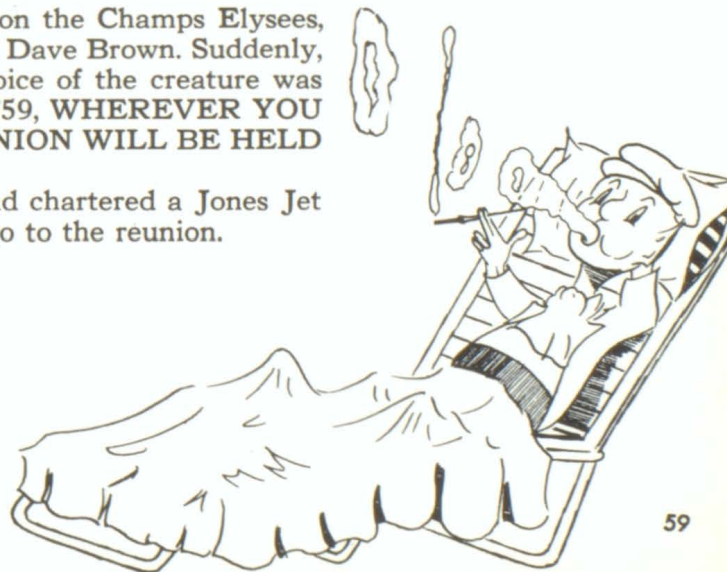

The next day the art lovers, Judy Allen, Dorothy Borbely, and Isabel Ferreira, had to visit the Louvre, or they would "simply die." The guide Benny Lazdauskas, pointed out pictures painted by the famous impressionist, Dian Weaver. Two of the more famous were "Sunset at Masaitis Pass" and "Birdseye View of a Pam Gillette Blade." Farther down the hall they stopped to admire Joanne Orzechowski's interpretation of "Mona Vecsey."

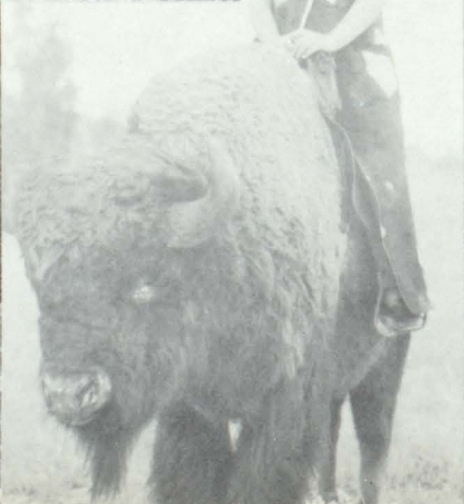

Their next stop was at Goodwin's Hot Dog Stand on the Champs Elysees, where they bumped into Mark Kaplan, Agnes Holst, and Dave Brown. Suddenly, over radio station VOOM, the unmistakably familiar voice of the creature was heard saying, "ATTENTION ALL BASSICKITES OF '59, WHEREVER YOU ARE. RETURN IMMEDIATELY. OUR CLASS REUNION WILL BE HELD TOMORROW."

Dropping everything, they dashed to the airport and chartered a Jones Jet plane and flew to the U.S. in two hours, just in time to go to the reunion.

REUNION PACT

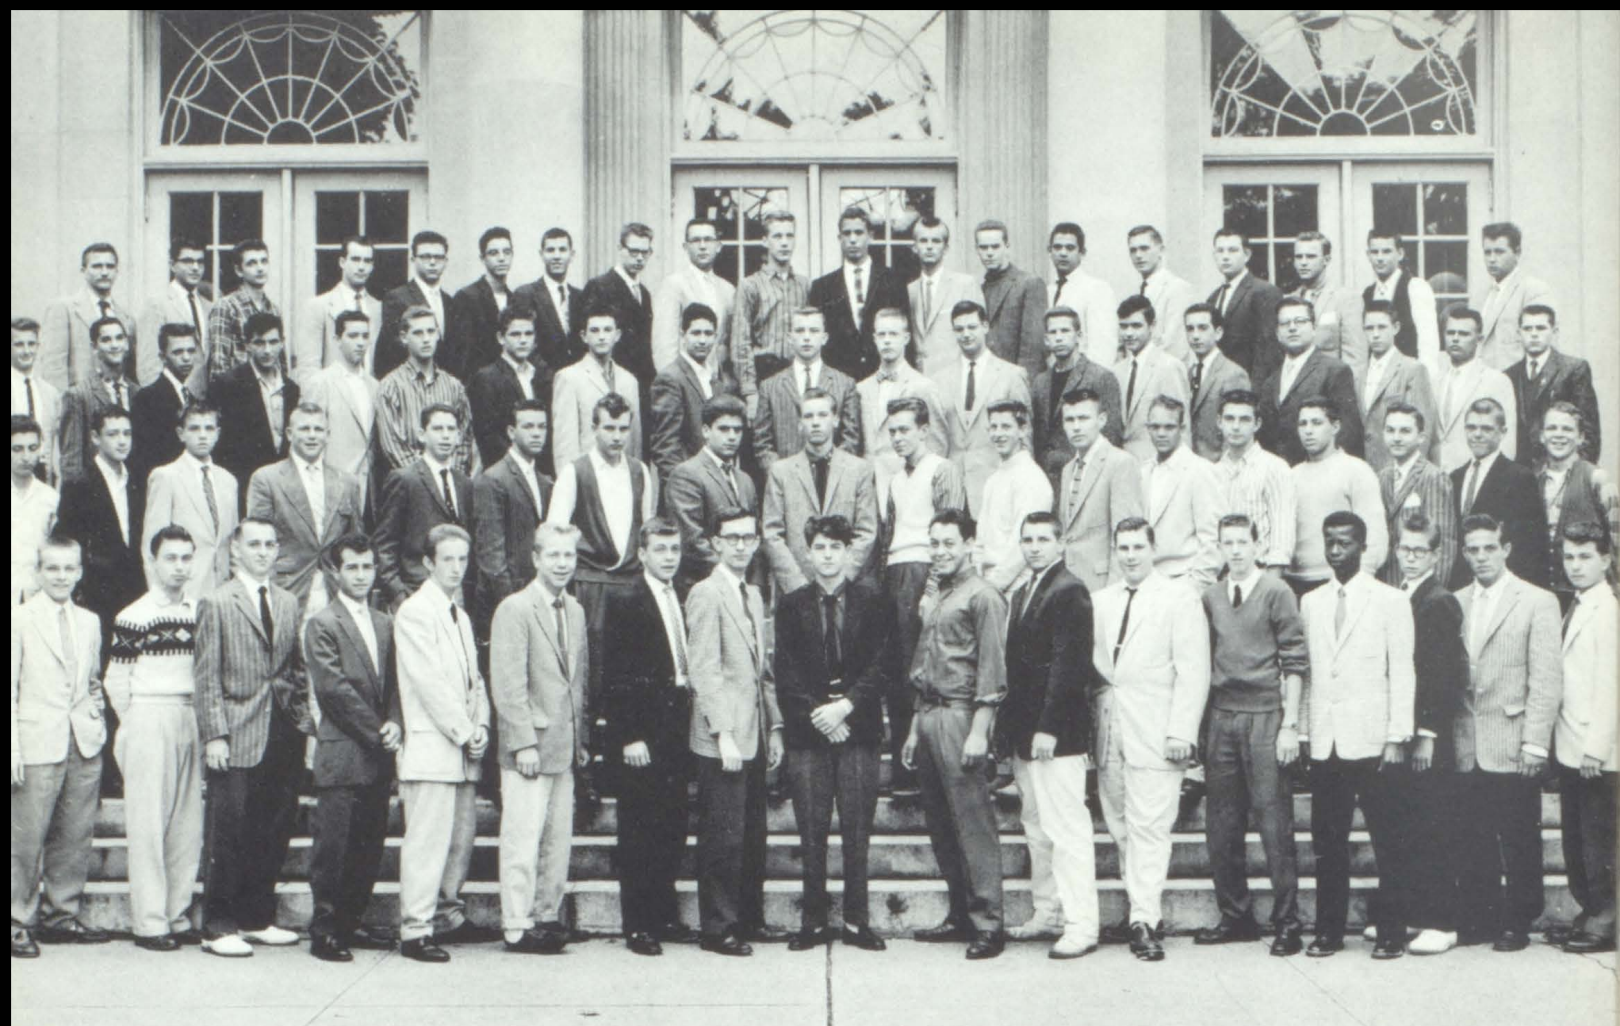

We, the Class of 1959, have enjoyed three wonderful years filled with warm memories of good times at Bassick High School. As we prepare to leave, we look into the future to the year 1964, when we have agreed to meet once again, alone, or with husband or wife. At this reunion we hope to renew old friendships and share the experiences we have gained in the five intervening years. As officers of the Class of 1959, we promise to assume the responsibility of organizing this reunion.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Seated, l.-r.: David Borgman, Sue Hickman.

Standing: Marcia Geisler, Sam Gray, Henry Rucker, Wendy Glantz, Mrs. Sylvia Cousins.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The officers of the Class of 1960, ably advised by Mrs. Sylvia Cousins, were: president, David Borgman; vice-president, Sue Hickman; secretary, Marcia Geisler; treasurer, Sammy Gray; and co-directors of social activities, Wendy Glantz and Henry Rucker.

The first event that this versatile class sponsored was the Mothers' Tea in early November. On February 12, a roller skating party, "Bassick on Wheels," proved to be a tremendous success. Not long after, came the traditional fashion show on All Girl's Day. Finally the junior class enjoyed their trip, which was a huge success.

After completing a wonderful year filled with many outstanding social events, the Class of 1960 can look forward eagerly to its senior year.

Standing: Barbara Mueller, Margie Wellner, Carole

Klemm, Donna Sheldrick, Bev Rattray, Mrs. Sylvia Cousins, Nancy Naramore, Eleanor Beitman, Audrey Velky, Rose Allen, Lois Kleban.

JUNIOR MOTHERS' TEA

On November 6, 1958, the Class of 1960 held a tea honoring their mothers in the Library. The mothers had an opportunity to meet each other, the junior class officers, and Mrs. Sylvia Cousins, class advisor. The highlight of the tea was a fashion show based on an ideal wardrobe for teenagers. Other entertainment was provided by Linda Burcheski, Sammy Gray, Margie Swisher, and Frances Turetsky.

Much credit for the success of the tea goes to Chairman Wendy Glantz, social director of the junior class; Jane Broadbin, her able assistant for the tea; and Mrs. Cousins, class advisor.

SOPHOMORE

Seated, l.-r.: Paul Hrdlicka, Sue Kish.

The Class of 1961 elected their first officers in November. They were: president, Paul Hrdlicka; vice-president, Sue Kish; secretary, Barbara Toth; treasurer, Richard Shiff; and co-directors of social activities, Maris Kleinman and Bill Balamaci. A new custom of using a standard voting machine was started.

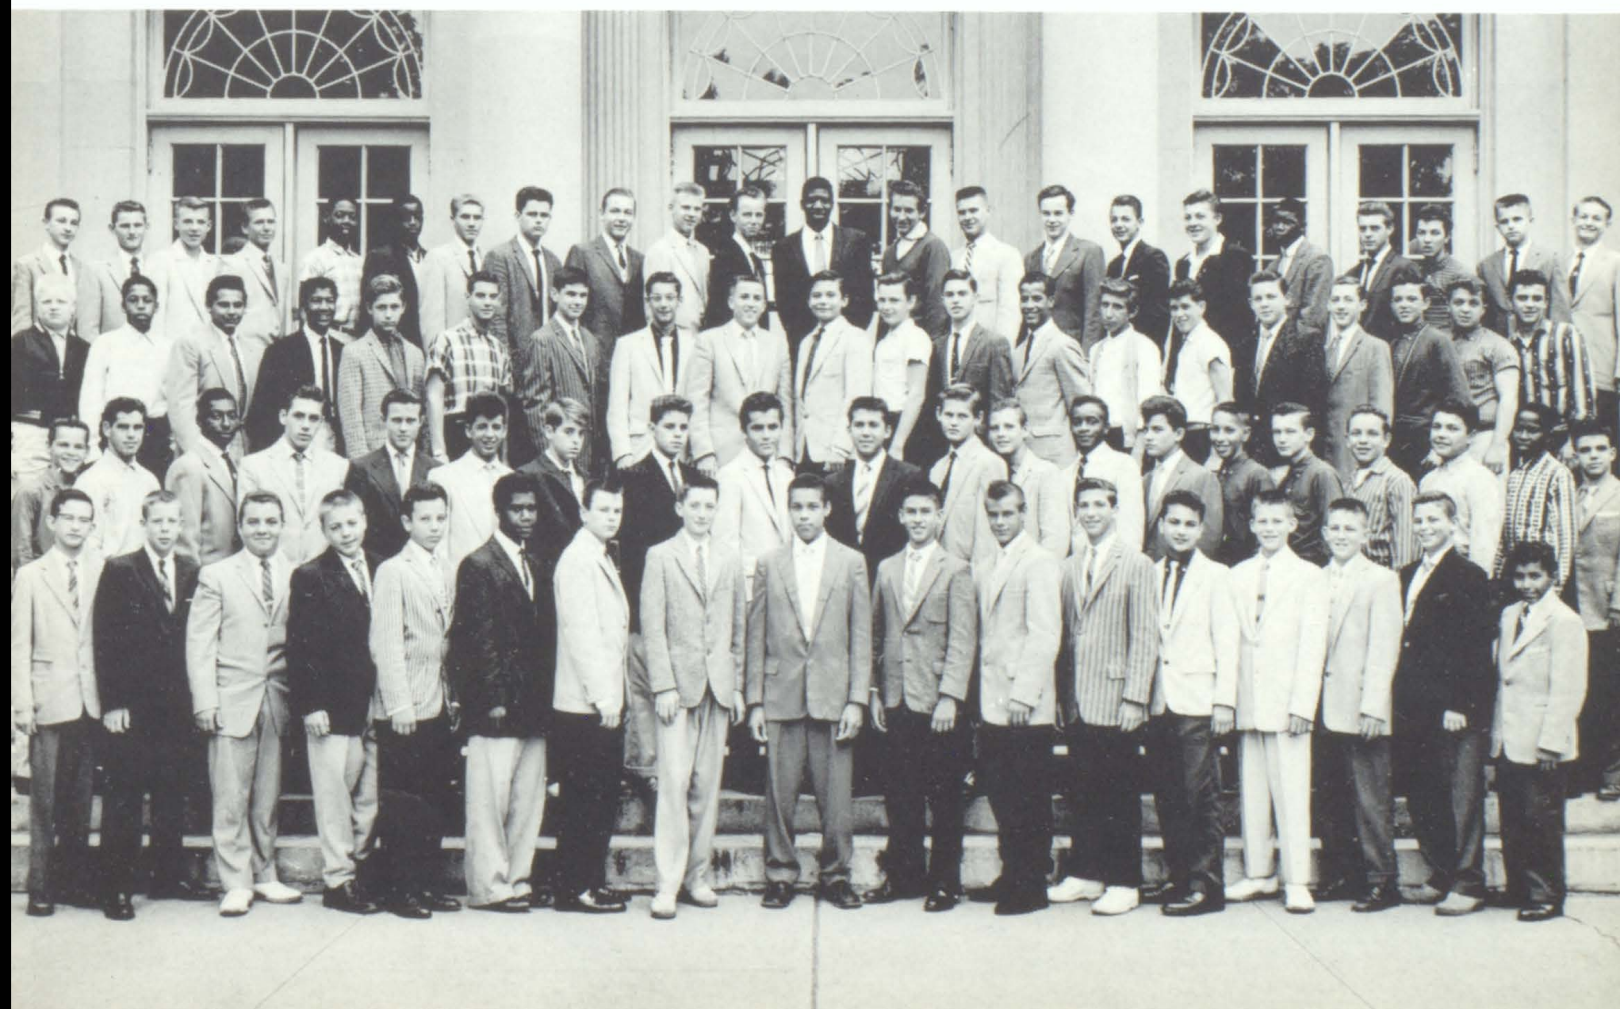

The gala "Mardi-Gras Party" was held on February 10 so that the class could become better acquainted. In April, the sophomores played host to their mothers at the traditional tea. April also saw the sophomore girls enthusiastically participate in All-Girls' Day.

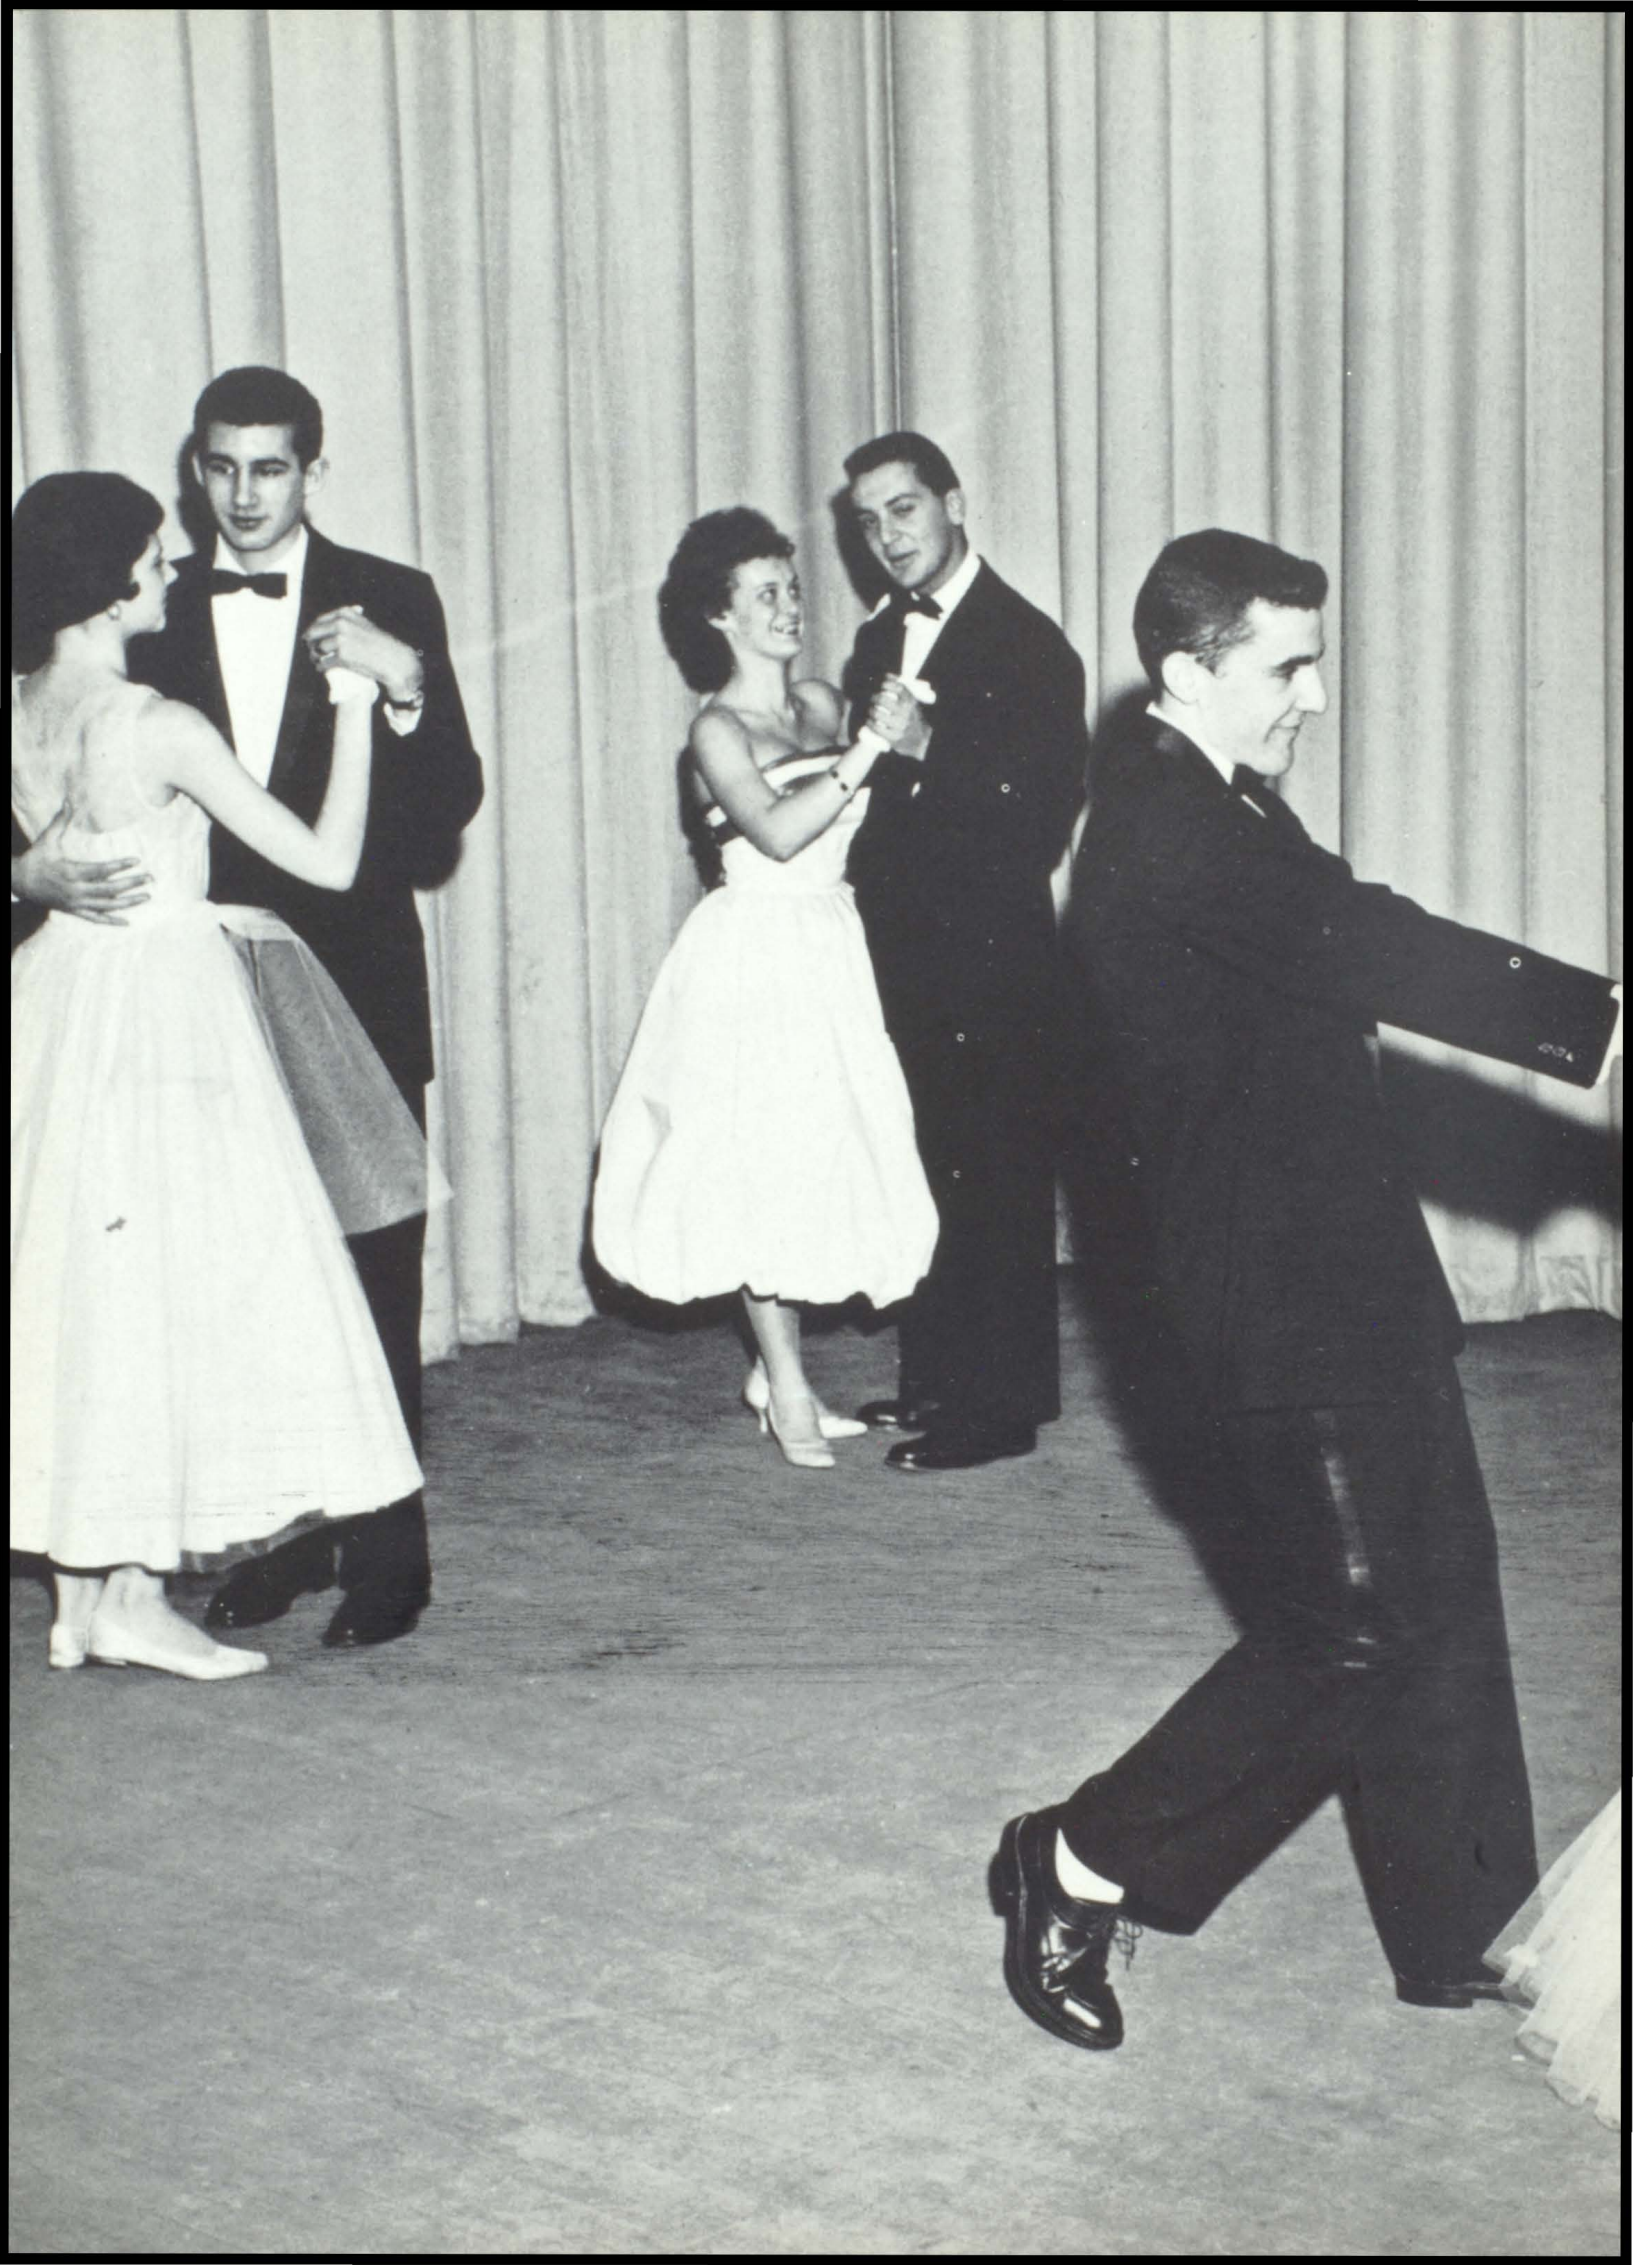

Under the guidance of Miss Barbara Fotta, advisor, the Class of 1961 looks forward to more wonderful years at Bassick.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President	Ron Millard
Vice-President	Eileen Bjorken
Secretary	Martha McCauley
Treasurer	Henry Rucker
Advisor	Mr. Sidney Goldstein

Extra-curricular activities at Bassick are many and varied. Some offer stu-dents recognition for outstanding scholastic achievement. Others offer students an opportunity to perform services for the school, to display and develop talents, and to pursue hobbies and special interests. Still others supplement classroom learning or prepare students for their chosen vocation. All, however, help the students to grow in leadership, responsibility, and a spirit of cooperation with others.

The Student Council, under the direction of Mr. Sidney Goldstein, is a dy-namic organization devoted to student government at Bassick. It is the job of the Council to express student opinion on various school issues. Led by Ronald Millard, the Student Council, composed of all homeroom presidents, discussed and voted on many new proposals this year.

SCHOLARSHIP-LEADERSHIP

Among the organizations at Bassick which are designed to recognize high achievement is Scholarship-Leadership. Members, only juniors and seniors, must have attained an average of eighty percent, must have demonstrated leadership ability, and must have been elected by their classmates to receive Scholarship-Leadership pins.

At an awards assembly this year, Mr. Bernard Shapiro presented silver pins to five percent of the Junior Class and gold pins to five percent of the Senior Class. The lucky recipients may wear their pins for one year, at the end of which the pins must be returned. At graduation, outstanding seniors are awarded gold pins which may be kept permanently.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The most selective honor organization is the National Honor Society, which requires for membership, scholarship (a first honor average), leadership, character, and service. In February, eleven juniors and twenty-four seniors were inducted into the Society, previously composed of thirteen members.

During the year, the Society, under the guidance of Miss Miriam Mallay, sponsored a very successful sale of Thanksgiving corsages and a donut sale. With these funds the Bassick Chapter of the National Honor Society set a notable precedent — a reception in the school library for the new members and their parents on the evening of their induction to the Society.

USHERS' GUILD

The Ushers' Guild, under the guidance of Miss Helen Ferriter, is both an honor and a service organization. Its members are junior and senior girls who have attained an honor average. At the first meeting of the year, the girls elect a senior as head usher and a junior as assistant head usher. It is their duty to see that enough girls have volunteered their services for every assignment.

The Ushers' Guild serves at both school and community affairs. The ushers are frequently seen, beautifully gowned, welcoming guests at Bassick's plays and concerts. On various occasions, the girls are also called upon to usher for community programs at the Klein Memorial.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

President Peter Ungvarski
 Secretary Alice Fitzpatrick
 Advisor Mrs. Nanette Tenn

Among the other service clubs are Key Club, Library Squad, and Junior Red Cross. The Key Club, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and guided by Mr. William Haffner, this year conducted a canned foods drive for needy families at Thanksgiving and at Christmas.

The Library Squad, which assists Miss Corinne Schread in many phases of library work and also sponsors the "Library Corner" in the Bassick Voice, held a Christmas party at which new members were inducted. At the end of the year two-year members received awards; all members received certificates for their service.

The Junior Red Cross, under the direction of Mrs. Nanette Tenn, conducted a clothing and toy drive for the children at Margaret Ford Cottage. In addition, Bassick's chapter joined with other schools for city-wide Junior Red Cross projects and conferences.

SCENIC ARTISTS

For Bassick's dramatic and music programs the talents of the Scenic Artists and the Scenic Builders are much in demand. Under the direction of Mr. Henry Walsh, the Scenic Artists provide set designs for the Senior and Spring Plays, the Christmas Assembly, and the Green and White Revue. The Scenic Builders, advised by Mr. Henry Rockel, make, erect, and repair the scenery for Bassick's stage productions. Quite literally, these are the men behind the "scenes" at Bassick.

MAKE-UP CLUB

Other behind-the-scenes artists are the members of the Make-up Club. Transforming a high-school senior into a graying high-school principal is no problem for these adept young ladies. Under the direction of Miss Florence Huntress, the Make-up Club serves both at dress rehearsals and on play nights, preparing the cast for their appearance in front of the footlights.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Among the organizations which give students an opportunity to develop and display their talent is the Dramatic Club. Under the able direction of Miss Mae McNulty, the Dramatic Club met regularly to discuss and plan the plays it produced. At these meetings the members developed their voice control and stage presence. Because of stiff competition only the most promising members were chosen to take part in the plays. The Senior Play, "Time Out for Ginger," and the Spring Play, "What A Life," were two fine comedies presented by the Dramatic Club this year.

BAND

Bassick offers its students a variety of musical organizations. Those who play instruments can join Band. Under the direction of Mr. Stephen Gaspar, the Band played at football games, pep assemblies, the Christmas Assembly, and the Spring Concert. At sectional and group rehearsals, the Band perfected and expanded its repertoire, now including many popular show tunes. Annually several members of the Bassick Band also play in the All-State Band in Hartford.

DANCE BAND

The Dance Band, known as the "Sophisticats," is a busy organization. In addition to participating in the Spring Concert and the Green and White Revue, the Dance Band, also directed by Mr. Stephen Gaspar, entertained at both the Senior and Spring Plays. They also played for the Bassick-Fairfield Hop and the Sophomore Class Party. Al DelMonte served as student leader, while John Veray and Joe Silva acted as co-managers. If this year's Dance Band sounded better than ever before, it might have been because of the new set of drums which the Band acquired.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

For those who enjoy singing, Bassick has both the A Cappella Choir and the Chorus. Members of the Choir are carefully chosen by Mrs. Lilyan Zigun, director. The Choir performed at the Christmas Assembly and the Spring Concert. At graduation senior members of the Choir performed alone as members of the Senior Chorus.

Annually the Choir participates in the All-State Choir Audition Festival, at which each choir is evaluated. Some members also attend the All-State Chorus Festival, held in Hartford.

BOYS' CHORUS

Many students belong to Bassick's other singing groups, the Girls' and the Boys' Choruses. Also directed by Mrs. Lilyan Zigun, the Choruses rehearse separately, but sang together for the Christmas Assembly. It is from the Choruses, which meet twice a week, that most of the members of the A Cappella Choir are chosen.

Together with several members of the Choir, the Choruses traveled to New York on March 11 for their annual opera trip. This year they saw La Boheme at the Metropolitan Opera.

STAMP AND COIN CLUB

Bassick's extra-curricular program also provides for those students who have hobbies or special interests.

Bassick's philatelists and numismatists are members of the Stamp and Coin Club, directed by Mr. Stephen Sebestyen. This group has made trips to the Armory in New York City to see the Philatelic Exhibit and Show, and to the Pitney-Bowes Company in Stamford, where stamp meters are made. At the meetings, presided over by Phil Whitney, a number of stamp raffles and exhibits were held.

U. S. HISTORY DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club, under the direction of Miss Marie B. Cooney, meets bi-monthly to debate topics of current interest. Membership is open to all seniors studying United States history.

At each meeting the Club first plans its next debate, chooses a topic, and appoints two teams. After this, the debate for that meeting is presented. Such controversial and timely topics as the voting privilege for eighteen-year-olds, the effectiveness of U.S. foreign policy in the Berlin Crisis, legalized gambling, and the Supreme Court decision on segregation were discussed this year.

Debating Club forces students to be aware of current issues and to be able to defend a point of view with forceful, logical reasons.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Voice Literary Staff published five issues of the Bassick Voice this year. The Voice, directed by Mr. Bernard Siller, also entered the 35th annual contest for school publications, sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The financial half of the newspaper is handled by the Voice Business Staff. For the third consecutive year, the ad space was oversubscribed, thanks largely to Co-Salesmen of the Year, Barbara Graham and Maureen Shea.

This year several members of the Yearbook Staff, organized in early October, attended the Connecticut Scholastic Press Association Conference, at which they heard discussions on organization, layout, and criticisms of yearbooks. This trip helped to bring new ideas to the 1959 Voice.

LATIN CLUB

The language clubs offer students the opportunity to study further the language of their choice and to learn about its background. The clubs limit membership to students in their second year of the language.

The newly organized Latin Club, under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Nelson, sponsored a Roman Christmas Party, at which members were given a sheet and shown the proper way to don a toga. At each monthly meeting different members put on skits depicting the lives of famous Romans.

The Spanish Club, guided by Miss Grace Hughes, conducts its meetings, which include monthly song fests, in Spanish. The Club also publishes a monthly newspaper, written entirely in Spanish and containing features of regular newspapers — a gossip column, the top ten records, and articles about club members.

FRENCH CLUB

The German Club, sponsored by Mrs. Ilse Levi, does much to enhance the student's knowledge of Germany. Mrs. Levi related to the members a first-hand account of life in Germany. The Club also delights in preparing various German dishes.

The French Club, directed by Mrs. Vilma Mamrus, conducts its meetings in French. The members translated popular songs into French and held song fests. This year Mrs. Mamrus showed slides which she took recently in France. In addition, the Club had various speakers who discussed the French political system and the future of France and its people.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Other clubs are concerned with the students' vocational lives. The Future Nurses of America, advised by Miss M. Olive Donnelly, R.N., includes as members anyone interested in a medical career. This year the Future Nurses attended a tea and tour at the University of Bridgeport, as well as at St. Vincent's and Bridgeport Hospitals. During the year the club also held practical demonstrations and had speakers from the local hospitals.

The Order of Bassick Secretaries under the supervision of Miss Flora Neubauer, is composed of secretarial course girls with an honor average in shorthand and typing. This year various speakers from local businesses have addressed the club at their meetings. The girls also toured the offices of the Bridgeport Brass Company and were guests at a luncheon there.

The Future Homemakers of America, composed of girls who have taken the home economics courses, is directed by Miss Helen Reed. This year the girls were hostesses at a luncheon for the Tufts Glee Club and wardrobe mistresses for the Fashion Show and the Shakespeare Assembly.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America, under the direction of Miss Mary Louise Rafferty, greatly inspires many students who are interested in teaching. At the meetings guest speakers talked to the students about the training necessary for the teaching profession. This year's speakers included Mrs. Rhoda, of the Kennedy Center; Dr. Brooks, from New Haven State Teachers' College; and Mr. Shapiro, principal of Bassick. In addition, the Future Teachers visited various elementary schools to observe teaching methods.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Various athletic organizations, featuring both team and individual sports, attract most Bassick students, either as participants or just as enthusiastic supporters.

The football team, coached by Mr. Herbert Harrington and led by Co-captains Tony Wiencko and John Olson, overcame a slow start on the season to win a smashing victory over our traditional Thanksgiving Day rivals, Roger Ludlowe. In the last minutes of play, a thrilling touchdown brought the score to the final 18 to 12 victory. Tony's fine passing gained him a place on the All-District team.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The Bassick Lions, ably coached by Mr. Robert Hustek, battled strong competition, including the University of Bridgeport Freshmen, the state champion Wilbur Cross five, and the New England Tournament winner, Hillhouse, during the 1958 season. The team, composed largely of underclassmen and sparked by seniors Ed Romatzick and Dan Borgman, finished with a winning record and secured a place in the state tournament. A highlight of the year was the breathtaking 51-50 victory over Central.

The rebounding of Pomeroy Brown, as well as the steady play of Captain Ed Romatzick and high-scorer Dick Huydic, drew acclaim.

SWIMMING TEAM

Captain Guy Crosby
 Coach Mr. William Haffner

This year the Bassick Swimming Team, under the direction of Mr. William Haffner, broke most of its previous records. New records were established in the breast-stroke, the back-stroke, and the free-style by Captain Guy Crosby, Alex Moran, Frank Czisar, Paul Schultz, and Whitney Young.

The team faced a difficult schedule, with sixteen meets held during January and February at the Y.M.C.A. and the North End Boys' Club.

BOWLING TEAM

"It's a strike!" — and Bassick's newly organized bowling team chalks up another victory. In spite of a slow start, practice and perseverance carried the team through to second place in the M.B.I.A.C. league, composed of Milford, Stratford, Central, Harding, and Bassick. The season which began in October kept the bowlers busy until February. Our team, under the leadership of Mr. Stanley Turski, deserves our congratulations for a successful first year.

BASEBALL TEAM, 1958

Captain John Gennette
Coach Mr. Herbert Harrington

Coached by Mr. Herbert Harrington, the 1958 Baseball Team won eight of its sixteen games, opposing all high school teams in the metropolitan area. The leading hitter, Bill D'Auria, and the captain, John Gennette, turned in fine performances for Bassick.

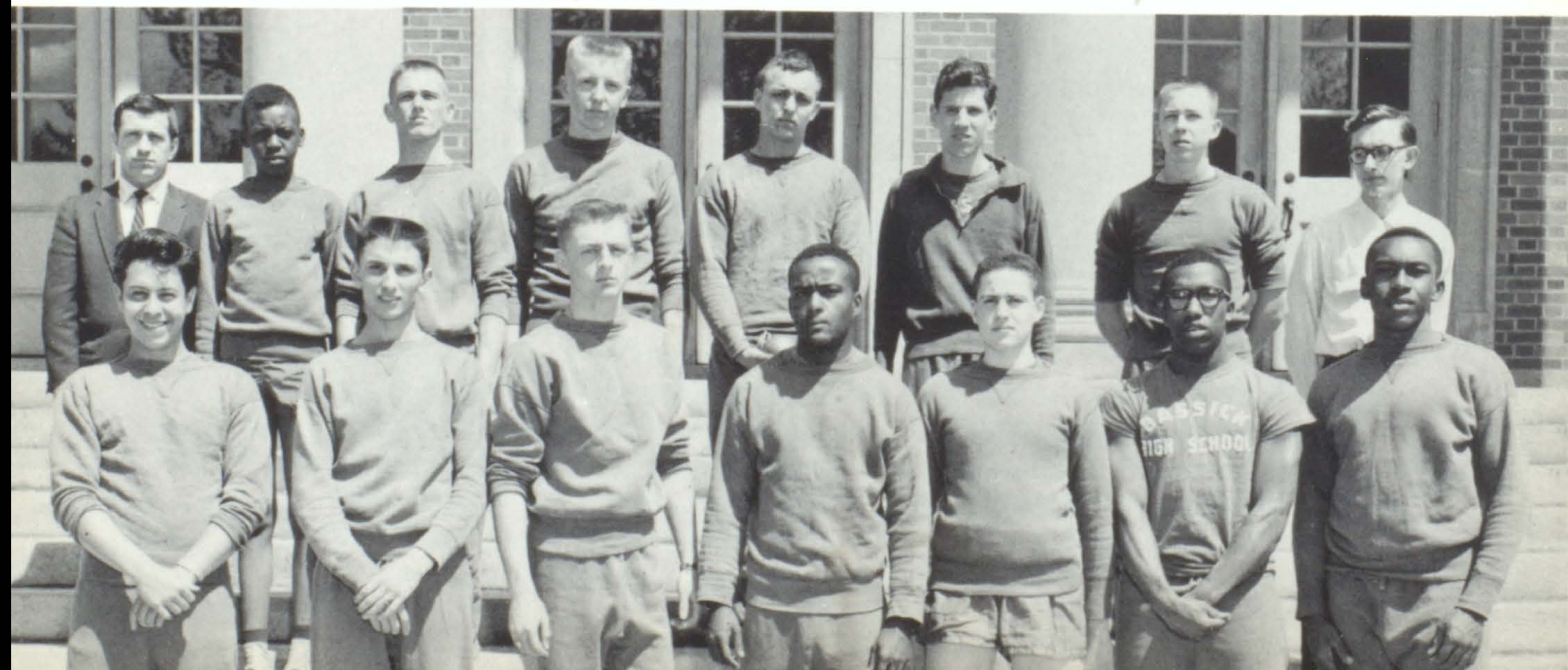

The Track Team, in its second year of existence in 1958, showed a marked improvement over the previous year, winning almost six percent more meets. Coached by Mr. Stanley Turski and led by Co-captains Mort Johnson and Roy Walker, the harriers excelled especially in track, rather than field, events.

GOLF TEAM, 1958

Captain Dick Savitt
Coach Mr. Richard Mayer

The 1958 Golf Team, under the direction of Mr. Richard Mayer, enjoyed the best season in its history. Captained by Dick Savitt, the team compiled a laudable 9 and 3 record. This remarkable record enabled Bassick to compete in the city and state championship tournaments, in which they placed third and sixth, respectively.

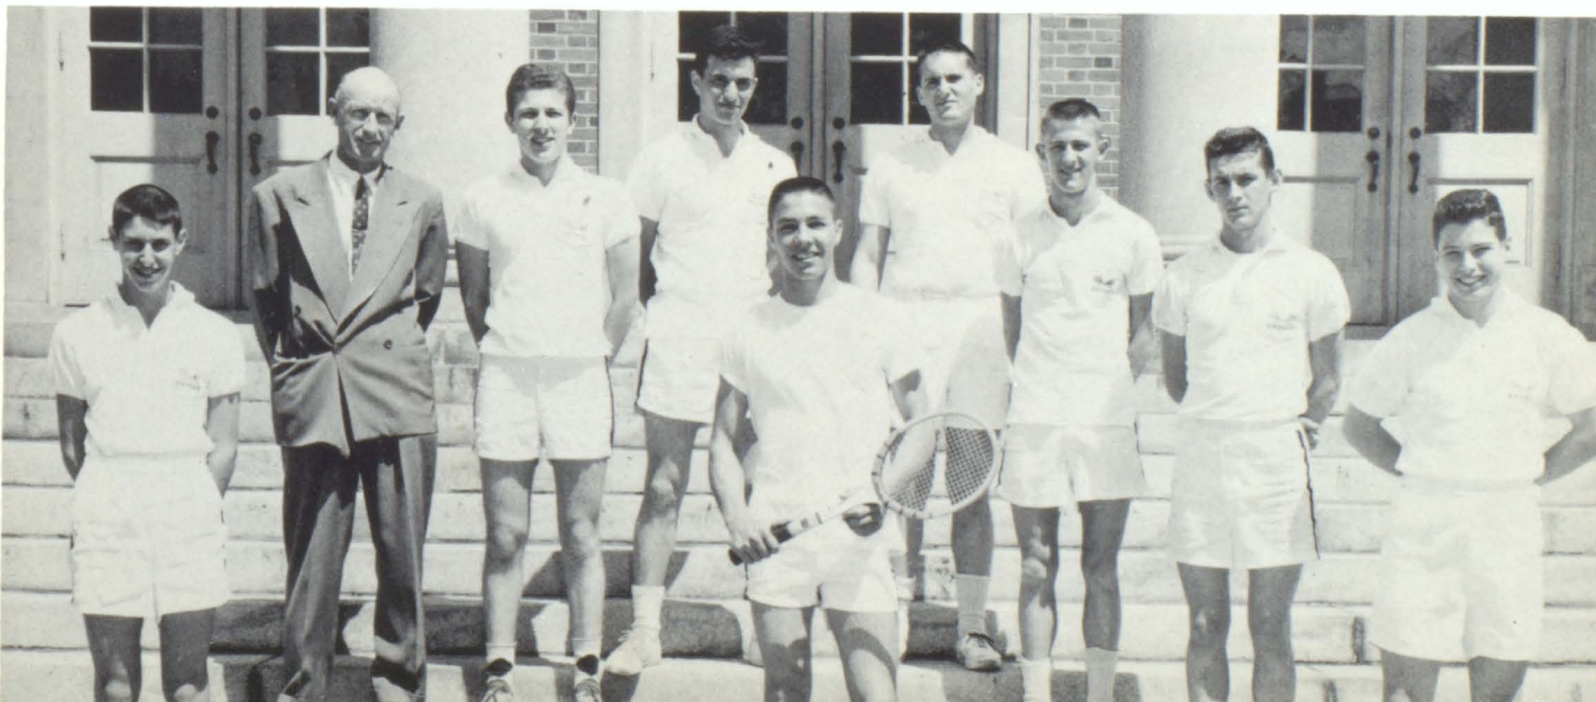

Coached by Mr. Charles Carr, the 1958 Tennis Team won the M.B.I.A.C. crown, finishing the season with an enviable 8 and 3 record. The team also went on to capture a berth in the state championship matches.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC LEADERS' ASSOCIATION

The G.A.L.A., under the supervision of Mrs. Myrtle Humphreys, has provided many interesting and varied activities for the girls at Bassick. The program has included horseback riding, tennis, hiking, soccer, bowling, swimming, and basketball, all of which the girls have enjoyed greatly. Two initiations proved to be highlights of the year's activities. Other popular events were Sports' Night, in which both students and faculty participated, and All Girls' Day, at which the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes competed in song, cheer, and comedy athletic events for the judges' votes. All in all, it was a "GALA" year.

ATHLETIC DELEGATES

Many students who do not actively participate in sports, aid and support the teams by their services and their spirit. Among these are the Athletic Delegates, supervised by Mr. Charles Neary and composed of delegates from each home room. As representatives of the Bassick Athletic Association, they have been responsible for the sale of Booster tickets and Fathers' Club tickets, the proceeds of which went toward the support of extra-curricular sports activities, such as bowling, swimming, and tennis. The delegates also have posted athletic information and game schedules. To these unsung heroes we say, "Thank you for a good job well done."

CHEERLEADERS

Behind every good team is enthusiastic school spirit. The "squad," as Bas-sick's Cheerleaders are often called, certainly demonstrated that spirit themselves and encouraged it in the spectators at every game. Captained by vivacious Mary Ann Gniadek, the girls also cheered at pep assemblies during the year.

The Baton Twirlers, directed by Mrs. Myrtle Humphreys, also added spirit to the football games. The sextet, dressed in green and white uniforms and white boots and led by Captain Judy Kovacs, delighted the students at games and pep assemblies with demonstrations of their skill.

To encourage students to attend Bassick athletic events and to create enthusiasm at the games was the task of the Pep Club. Pep Club members were often seen putting up posters (such as the notable, "Mr. Magoo says, 'Goo to the games.'") in the lobby or on the stairs.

On the theory that in unity there is strength (or volume, as the case may be), the girls sat together to cheer at football and basketball games.

Just before Thanksgiving, the Pep Club made and sold green and white shakers, which they waved vigorously at the big game.
