

BHC-MSS 0074
Guide to the Mary Darlington Taylor Research Collection
By Meg Rinn, February 2020

Descriptive Summary

Creator: Mary Darlington Taylor

Title: Mary Darlington Taylor Research Collection

Dates: 1870s-1957 at this time

Quantity: 1 manuscript box

Abstract: In progress

Language: English

Repository: Bridgeport History Center

Biographical sketch

A full biography of Mary Darlington Taylor is forthcoming. See below.

Scope and Content note:

The scope of the collection is unclear at the moment and anticipated to grow. As such, a full scope and content note cannot be provided at this time.

Arrangement Note

Due to a lack of original order and Taylor's research interests, the collection has been treated as a series of subject files and arranged in alphabetical order.

Administrative information:

Provenance: Unclear at this time

Preferred Citation:

Mary Darlington Taylor Research Collection (BHC-MSS 0074) Bridgeport History Center, Bridgeport Public Library.

Names and Subject Tracings

Subject tracings

Bridgeport, Conn.

Detailed box and folder listing

Box 1

1. Bishop genealogy, undated
2. Boothe Brothers, 1949
3. Bridgeport Protestant Widows Society, 1899-1940
4. Bridgeport, pre-connector

5. Bridgeport Hydraulic, centennial
6. Bridgeport Hydraulic, centennial
7. Bullard Machine Tool Company, 1950s
8. George Bye of Westport, undated
9. Colonial era reproduction images, undated
10. Connecticut Circle magazine, 1956
11. James and John Bard, painters of steam boat portraits from the Mariner's Museum, 1949
[related to research on J.F. Huger]
12. Litchfield's Legacy, 1950
13. Pickpenny man/Crazy John,
14. Read's Department Store – centennial, 1957
15. Read's Department Store – centennial, 1957
16. Read's Department Store – centennial, 1957
17. George Seltsam sketchbook, 1875
18. Snuff bottle collection, undated
19. Sturbridge village, photographs, 1957
20. Sturbridge village, newspaper article, 1957
21. Taxpayers League proposal to abolish the Pequannock and yellow Mill bridges for a WPA dredging project, 1933
22. Westport society pages
23. Unclear/additional

Box 2

Antiques page, 1936-1936

Antiques page, 1936-1937

Antiques page, 1937-1938

Box 3

Antiques articles from Bridgeport Post, 1935-1938