Re: Estate of Alan C. Fajerman

Dear Ms. Braithwaite:

As you know, I am the executor of the Estate of Alan C. Fajerman. A copy of the estate inventory is enclosed, as required by the Probate Court rules.

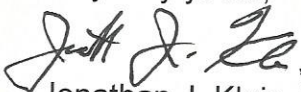

In his last will and testament, Mr. Fajerman bequeathed his miscellaneous secular books to the Pequot Library, and the Bridgeport Public Library was designated as a contingent beneficiary if that organization were to decline the bequest. Please be advised that the Pequot Library accepted the bequest, which has been delivered to it, and there is therefore no remaining bequest for the Bridgeport Public Library.

The Probate Court rules excuse me from the requirement of sending you copies of future filings with the Probate Court since the bequest has been received by the Pequot Library. I respectfully request that you send me a short letter acknowledging that you have been informed that there is no remaining bequest for the Bridgeport Public Library and that the library has no claim against the estate. Please email the acknowledgment to me, or mail it to my home address, which is:

6701 Woodbury Road
Baltimore, MD 21209-2709

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Jonathan J. Klein, Esq.
