Teen Events February 2022

A Shout Out to All Teens!~ages 13-19:
All Events are Virtual--Join Us on Zoom!

2/3 THUR 4:30pm Kahoot! Competition: Everything Manga and Comics

Do you marvel at DC heroes? Do you prefer reading from right to left? Then this challenge is your chance to show off your manga and comics knowledge--and to win something cool!

2/10 THUR 4:30pm Watch The Help

This civil rights era story follows the lives of black women in 1963, Jackson, Mississippi. (Want to watch this--and other films--for free?! Download them today on Hoopla using your library card!)

2/12 SAT 2pm Kevin Hart's Guide to Black History

Comedian Kevin Hart tells the stories of little known black heroes in US history. We'll watch his funny take on history, and then have a talk about these & other unsung great black Americans.

2/17 THUR 4:30pm Teen Talk: Obama, Trump, and Race in Politics

Join a panel for an honest and civil discussion about the role of race in what some have called "post-racial" America.

2/24 THUR 4:30pm Teen Comic Book Club

Are you a comics fan, a graphic novel zealot, or an otaku? Share what you're reading now and what your favorites are...and discover ones you've never read before. We meet once month: we welcome you to become a club member!

2/26 SAT 2pm The Hate U Give and other Angie Thomas Books

Join in this discussion about American society and young black adults today, as reflected in Angie Thomas' novels. Come to the library for copies of her books. Everyone who attends will receive a prize!
