

BRIDGEPORT LIBRARY

Highlights

- Digital Navigator continues to be very popular. Our Digital Navigators Andre O. Margaret G. and Ana T. have been very busy.

YS:

- Tutoring takes place every Wednesday & Thursday afternoon in the Teen Room. Attendance grows each week.

RandR:

- Michael, Adam, Margaret finishing up Community Assets overview of every neighborhood in Bpt (demographics reports). Finished overviews will go out to all BPL locations in December.
- The reference team continues completing the compiling information for a new Quick Reference Guide for all staff that provides an overview of all services and collections offered by BPL as well as how-to instructions for equipment, printing services, and more.
- Adam continues to add dynamic content to the BPL YouTube channel,

BHC:

- BHC picked up material from the Greater Bridgeport Symphony in mid-November
- Curator Ben Ortiz came to BPL to meet with City Librarian and E. Van Tuyl re. the disposition of deaccessioned art from the BPL and BHC collections. The need to place any monies garnered from the sale of deaccessioned items was emphasized. Ortiz's 2018-19 art inventory highlights priority items for conservation treatment money is received through auctions.
- Visiting international researcher at the end of November/start of December from Mexico City; doctoral candidate.

Programming Milestones

- Memoir writing attendance: 10
- Connecticut's Indigenous Peoples program: 33
- Monumental Bronze Company program: 6

Outreach - YS

- Kristin and LA I, Ana Felipe, visited St Raphael's Academy and presented to all classes (Pre-K- 3) on November 18th.
-

PDF Converter

Only two pages were converted.

Please Sign Up to convert the full document.

www.freepdfconvert.com/membership