Highlights

Book displays on Summer Reading, National Adopt a cat month, Juneteenth, lastly Father' s Day. A patron loved the Juneteenth display because he did not know anything about it. He wrote down all the book titles we had for future reading

Breta Hasimi started working full time

Blueprints on East Side Branch renovation put on display and patrons love that the library will get a second floor and more computers. They are sad that library would be closed during renovation.

Problem with homeless person asleep in front of the side entrance of the library. In more than one occasion police was called to the non-emergency number 203-576-7671 and homeless person escorted out.
