January was a quieter month at the library, with a noticeable dip in program attendance likely influence by cold weather or post-holiday fatigue. While activity slowed, the library remained open, welcoming those brave enough to venture out.

We are looking ahead to warmer days and renewed momentum in the months to come.

Youth Services

- Book display celebrating Dr. MLK.

Patron Engagement & Programs

- Little Readers story time and Music together continue to have a steady attendance, however, other program attendance took a dip.
- MLK Day – Newfield through a party for MLK themed “Party for a King”.

Collection Maintenance

- Juvenile collection weeding in the storage room is complete

Adult Services

- 50 Notoary appointments was completed in January with 108 documents being notarized!
- New Year, 365 New Opportunities, Book Lovers and MLK book Displays

Patron Engagement & Programs

- MLK “I Have A Dream” speech viewing; low attendance
- Family game night; 0 attendance. Second attempt at this program, will revamp to make it more interesting.

Collection Maintenance

- Nothing to report
