Youth Services

- June Book Displays
 - Book displays were created for Father's Day as well as Juneteenth
- Youth Service Programs @ Newfield
 - The Children's department hosted a number of programs this month in addition to the regular weekly programs. To kick off summer reading, Julie Murray performed a musical storytime called The Teddy Bear; the program also included a teddy bear craft. Also, for June, Matt the Magician joined us for an amazing magic show for youth and families along with Bring the Hoopla; a unique, fun fitness program for youth that aims to build self-confidence and focuses on teamwork and creativity.

Adult Services

- Programs @ Newfield
 - Mental Wellness group discussions continue with low attendance. In July there will be a Care & Connect series with the social worker focused on self-care.
 - Weekly Computer Classes continues. (Wednesdays @ 11:30am)
 - Weekly Beginner Chess program continues. (Wednesdays @ 4:30pm)
 - Juneteenth discussion hosted by the Godmother of Juneteenth Cynthia Griffin/Juneteenth of Fairfield County.
- June Displays
 - In celebration of Black Music month and Juneteenth, displays were placed in the Adult reading room and Marketplace.

Community

- Outreach 6/7 – Juneteenth Parade and Harambee; Seaside Park, 150 ppl
- Outreach 6/7 – 100 Girls Leading Summit; McLevy Green, 200-300 ppl
- Branch Manager Nykia E. attended ALA's annual library conference. The conference brought together librarians, educators, authors, and book lovers from across the country to celebrate literacy, information access, and the evolving role of librarians in our communities.
