-Joel Hinojosa did a dvd display for pride month up front. Almost half of the material he put out actually circulated throughout the month, and the banner got a few compliments. He also made bookmarks for pride month that went out fast. He worked with Bina and Monika on a special Juneteenth collection that was donated to North by the Victorinox Swiss Army Company. Joel made and pasted bookplates onto each item and the librarians got them processed and ready for display. Joel made a banner for that display that came out nice, also giving the company credit and thanks for the donation.
